WHEREAS:

The UBCM and Indian and Northern Affairs Canada signed the Memorandum of Understanding on Communication and Information Sharing on September 27, 2001, renewed it verbally in September of 2003, and since then have continued to produce substantial benefits for both memberships;

And whereas the information sharing between our organizations, the continuing success of the Community to Community Forum program through which three jointly organized province-wide events have been held and over 100 local relationship building events have been funded, and on-going development of resources to assist First Nations and local governments in resolving disputes, are all good examples of the productivity of this partnership;

And whereas there remains more that can be achieved together to serve our respective organizations in their efforts to improve working relationships between local governments and First Nations in BC;

THEREFORE:

The Union of British Columbia Municipalities and Indian and Northern Affairs Canada commit to another two-year term for this Memorandum of Understanding, to accomplish additional projects and initiatives, which implement the principles and objectives of the original Memorandum of Understanding.
