

2019 UBCM Convention – Series of Resolutions Articles

Article #4 - Classification of Resolutions

UBCM organizes resolutions in one of thirteen subject area classifications. Not to be confused with the categories, which are SR, ER, A, B, C.

The thirteen subject area classifications are:

1. Legislative – Community Charter and Local Government Act issues and authorities
2. Community Safety – legal matters and emergency safety
3. Elections – elections and related processes
4. Transportation – transportation issues
5. Taxation – charges and taxes levied by local governments
6. Finance – financial impacts on local governments
7. Assessment – property assessment issues
8. Environment – environmental issues
9. Land Use – planning issues, siting, DCC and ALR
10. Community Economic Development – regional sustainability and economic development
11. Regional Districts – issues around statutory authorities and jurisdictions of regional districts
12. Health – health policy and health services
13. Selected Issues – do not fall into other categories, but are of interest to local governments, includes housing and Indigenous issues.

See the Attachment for Article #4 for a detailed description of each classification.
