

Indigenous partnerships don't start with an & other lessons from lived experience

We respectfully acknowledge we are gathered on the shared unceded territory of the Squamish Nation and Lil'wat Nation.

Our Panel

Crystal Smith
Chief Councillor
Haisla Nation Council

Phil Germuth
Mayor
District of Kitimat

Rosanna McGregor
Cariboo Friendship Society
& AHMA

David Screech
Mayor
Town of View Royal

Charla Huber
Indigenous Relations &
Communications Consultant

Stepping out of your comfort zone

Nétsamaát

"We are all one"

Naut sa mawt

*"Working together
as one"*

Nawt-sa-maat

"One house, one heart, one prayer"

Na'tsa'maht

"One mind, one spirit"

When you are asking for a partnership:

Why are you asking?

What are you
actually asking for?

Who benefits?

Understanding Indigenous ways of doing business & Cultural Communication Styles

Town of View Royal Totem Pole Unveiling

Emergency Management

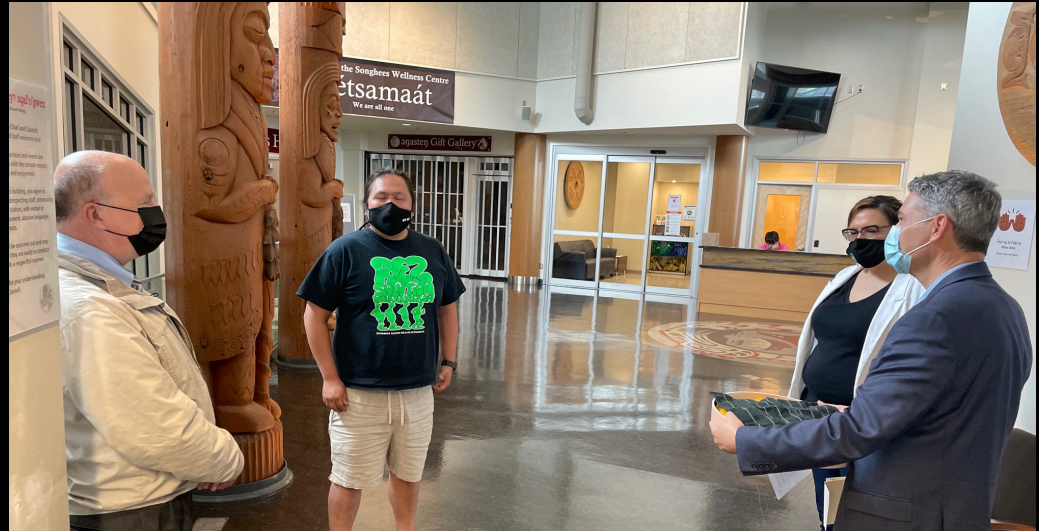

Relationships with
Songhees and Esquimalt
Nations

Hosting an Indigenous-led community event

National Day of Truth and Reconciliation

Central Saanich Oak Bay
Colwood Sooke
Esquimalt Sidney
North Saanich View Royal

CHARLA HUBER

Reconciliation asks are taking a toll on Nations

An Indigenous Partnership doesn't always need to be with a First Nation, Nation or a Band

Wildfires and Evacuation in Williams Lake

Emergency Management

Floods

Fire

Ice Storms

Road Closures

Supply & Demand

Town of Smithers

Homelessness

Housing crisis

Lack of municipal land

CHARLA HUBER

HAISLA NATION & DISTRICT OF KITIMAT

Community Economic Development Initiative (CEDI) Program

HAISLA NATION COUNCIL

KITIMAT

CEDI OVERVIEW

CEDI IS DELIVERED JOINTLY
BETWEEN CANDO AND FCM

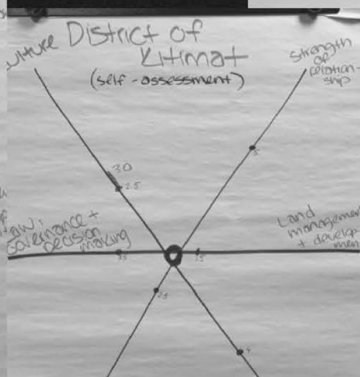

- Building a sustainable partnership and fostering relationship growth
- Tackling local challenges with local solutions
- Identifying and selecting economic development and/or land use planning projects to work on together

WHERE WE'RE AT

WORKSHOP 1 ✱

- Dialogue principles
- Community assessments
- Opportunities for joint projects

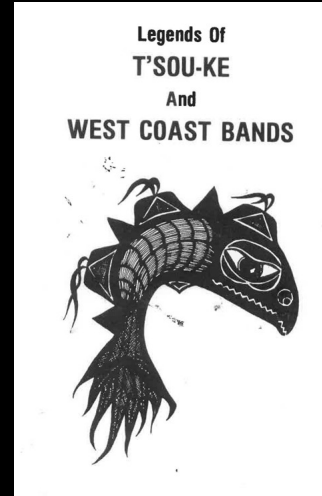

WHERE WE'RE GOING

We are excited to work together to build a stronger relationship and work jointly on locally-based projects.

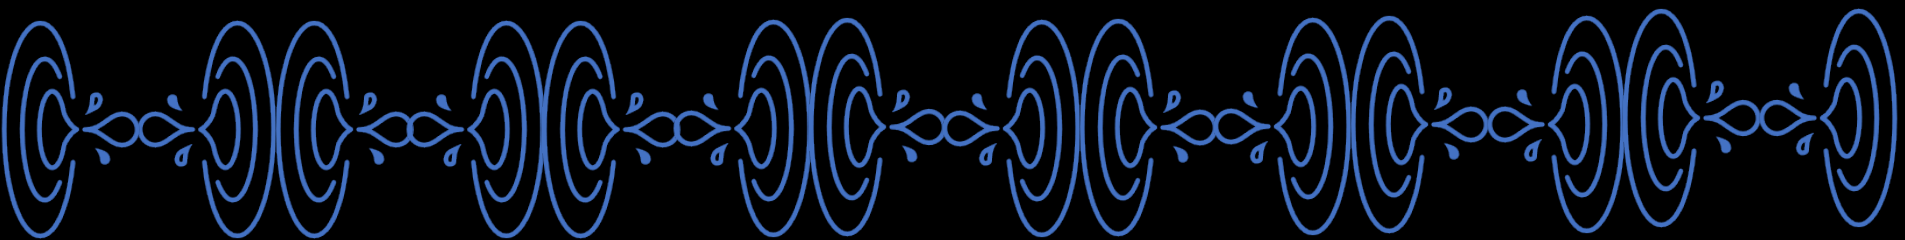

Honouring Indigenous Knowledge

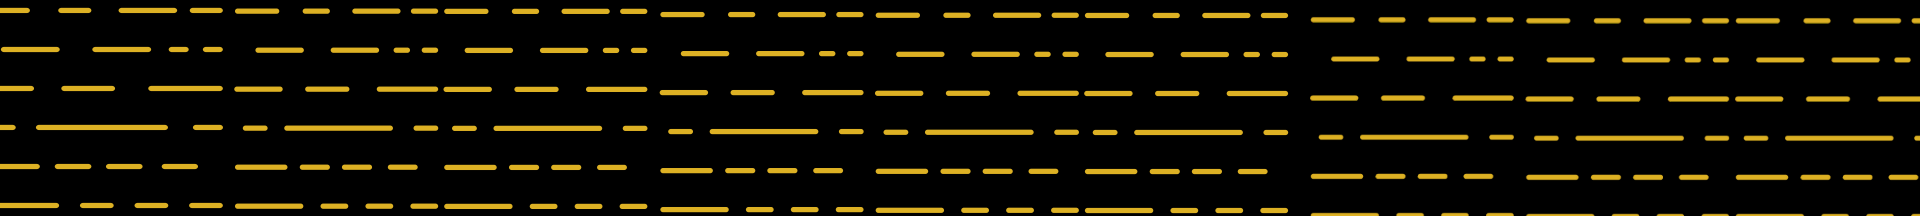

T'Sou-ke Nation – Indigenous People's Day

It doesn't happen over night.
It takes time, effort, and humility.

We can always do better.

Questions

CHARLA HUBER
Indigenous Communications

